

- Cortona by plane:

you can reach Cortona flying to:

- Firenze airport (best choice if available);
- Roma Fiumicino airport;
- Pisa, Bologna or Perugia airports.

If you arrive by plane on Sunday April 2nd:

- If you arrive at the Firenze airport:
on Sunday April 2nd, it is foreseen in the afternoon a bus service from the Firenze airport to Cortona, time still to be defined. One of the organizers will be present to pick-up you and help in finding the bus.
- If you arrive at the Roma Fiumicino airport or in any other airports:
Please contact the organizers.

- Cortona by train:

if you arrive in a different day or time, you can reach Cortona from your arrival airport by train. Here the Ferrovie dello Stato official web page:

Cortona is a little town lying on a hill and the station is at the foot of the hill, and if you arrive in a working day, there is a public bus service from the station to the village.

For people arriving on Sunday April 2nd we have organized a shuttle bus service from the Cortona - Camucia station to Cortona from 3 to 7 PM.

Please pay attention that this service is not foreseen from the Terontola – Cortona station, so you must use the RV trains and not the IC trains as these IC don't stop at the Camucia – Cortona railway station.

Coming from NORTH (Florence)

If you arrive from NORTH, you should take a RV train at the Florence Santa Maria Novella station and stop at the Camucia – Cortona railway station. It takes about 1h 20'.

Coming from SOUTH (Rome)

If you arrive from SOUTH, you should take a RV train at the Roma Termini station and stop at the Camucia – Cortona railway station. This is the stop after the Terontola Cortona station. It takes about 2h 20'.

In any cases, please inform the organizers about your day and time of arrival at Camucia – Cortona station using the email address iwhss17@to.infn.it.
